Chicago Inspector Honored by the American Society of Home Inspectors® for Long-Time Service

Chicago, November 17, 2011: Gregory Hines of Top Shelf Inspection, Inc., a local firm based in Chicago that conducts inspections of new and existing homes, was honored recently by the American Society of Home Inspectors for eight years of membership. Gregory Hines has been an ASHI Certified Inspector since 2006.

The American Society of Home Inspectors, founded in 1976, is the oldest, largest and most respected international professional organization of independent home inspectors in North America. Its Standards of Practice and Code of Ethics is the benchmark for professional performance in the field.

To become an ASHI Certified Inspector, a member must meet rigorous professional and technical requirements, including the successful completion of two comprehensive exams. In addition, he or she must perform at least 250 fee-paid home inspections that meet or exceed the ASHI Standards of Practice.

Gregory Hines conducts existing and new construction pre-purchase, pre-listing and maintenance inspections in the Chicago area. Further information about Gregory Hines' home inspections is available by calling 312-502-9090 or by visiting the inspector's Web site at www.topshelfinspection.com.
